

Directions from Stonehenge visitor centre to Avebury

It is around 24 miles from Stonehenge to Avebury and takes around 45 minutes by car. The Alexander Keiller Museum houses collection of items discovered in Avebury.

It is free to both National Trust and English Heritage members.

It is well worth stopping off in Devizes which is the home of the Wiltshire Museum which houses collections from both Stonehenge and Avebury. It is a pleasant market town with many places to eat and drink.

Map

Route Directions

Leave the visitor centre car park and at the roundabout take the 2nd exit onto A360 for Devizes.

Continue into Shrewton and take the 1st exit on the A360 at the roundabout signposted Devizes.

Continue along the A360 through Market Lavington and Potterne.

Wiltshire Museum

At Devizes, You may wish to stop at the Wiltshire Museum at 41, Long Street.

The museum has a nationally important collection of items relating to the Stonehenge and Avebury World Heritage Site.

In which case at the Southgate Inn take the first exit into the town centre onto Long Street and you will find the Wiltshire Museum on the left hand side.

If you do not wish to visit the Wiltshire Museum, at the Southgate Inn roundabout take the 2nd exit /A360 signposted "all routes".

Take the 1st exit onto Southbroom Road/ A342 and then at the next roundabout take the 2nd exit onto Estcourt Street/A361 signposted to Swindon.

Continue along the A361 through Devizes for Swindon until the junction with the roundabout with the A4 and take the 2nd exit onto the A4361 signposted for Avebury and Swindon.

Travel through Avebury Trusloe and at the entrance to the village of Avebury the public car park is on the left hand side.